

City of Auburn Proclamation

THINK AUBURN FIRST WEEK JUNE 27 TO JULY 3

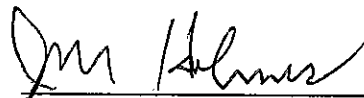

WHEREAS, As Auburn-area residents and business owners get ready to celebrate our nation's Independence, let's also celebrate and highlight the great, independent businesses in our community, and

WHEREAS, When we "Think Auburn First," we create a more sustainable local economy, create local jobs for residents, help fund vital municipal services, support non-profits and community groups, reduce environmental impact, build a stronger community, and

WHEREAS, "Think Auburn First Week" has been created by the Think Auburn First Steering Committee to give Auburn-area businesses an opportunity to, in their promotions and advertising, show why Auburn-area residents should shop locally rather than "drive down the hill," and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, J.M. Holmes, Mayor of the City of Auburn, do proclaim the week of June 27 to July 3, 2009, as "Think Auburn First Week" and urge Auburn-area residents to Think Auburn First each time they are going to purchase a good or service or make a donation to charity.

Issued this 22nd day of June 2009

J. M. Holmes, Mayor
